Dear Dr. V. K. Ahuja,

The National Commission for Women being the Apex Statutory Body to work for women empowerment in the country reviews legal and constitutional safeguards pertaining to women as per its mandate under Section 10(1)(d) of the NCW Act, 1990. The Ministry of Home Affairs through Ministry of Women and Child Development has sought recommendations on possible amendments to Criminal Law namely Indian Penal Code, 1860, the Code of Criminal Procedure 1973 and the Indian Evidence Act, 1872. The objective is to revisit the law to better facilitate needs and aspirations of public.

The Commission has conducted 2 consultations to 'Review of Criminal law-Improvement in Status of Women' through online mode on 18.01.2022 and 22.01.2022 with the objective to review and analyze the position of law.

In view of the above, the Commission would like to collaborate with your esteemed Institute in organizing the Regional Consultation on 'Review of Criminal law-Improvement in Status of Women' in the month of February, 2022. I request you to organise Regional Consultation in physical mode on the above given subject inviting experts in collaboration with National Commission for Women.

Dear Prof. (Dr.) J. S. Patil ,

As you are aware, the National Commission for Women is the apex statutory body working for the empowerment and development of women in the country. It is the mandate of the Commission to periodically review laws, identify legislative inadequacies and suggest remedial measures thereto.

In the wake of COVID 19 outbreak and subsequent lockdown measures, rights of migrant women workers have come to the forefront. The Commission, therefore, intends to organize Regional Consultations to review the current legal framework that deals with inter-state migrant workers, with a special focus on issues relating to women migrant workers. The Consultation is expected to see participation from a variety of governmental and non-governmental stakeholders.

In this regard, we would like to collaborate with your esteemed institution in organizing a virtual consultation on 'Reviewing Laws Related to Inter-State Women Migrant Workers' on 19th June, 2020. Given the lockdown conditions, the Consultation will be organized through video conferencing.

I shall be grateful for a line of confirmation in this regard.

With Regards,

Yours sincerely
