AWARENESS CUM REGISTRATION CAMP FOR MUGA SILK GI AUTHORISED USERS REGISTRATION AT DHAKUAKHANA, ASSAM 15TH AND 16TH OF FEBRUARY, 2023

Eastern Development Finance Corporation Limited (NEDFi) had organised an Awareness Cum Registration Camp for Muga Silk GI Authorised Users Registration at Dhakuakhana, Assam on 15th and 16th February, 2023.

Dhakuakhana, a sub-division of Lakhimpur district of Assam, is known as the land of Muga culture of Assam. About 90% of the families of this sub-division have been involved in Muga production and weaving since times immemorial and this has eventually formed into cultural identity of the people of this region. Therefore, Muga culture is a means of livelihood for the people of the region. However, most of the Muga producers and weavers are yet to be sensitised about the Muga Silk of Assam GI and enrolled as Authorised Users of the same.

The DPIIT-IPR Chair comprising of the Chair Professor (Dr. Pankaj Kumar), Research Assistants (Ms. Sharmistha Baruah and Ms. Dolly Kumar), Office Assistant cum Data Entry Operator (Mr. Priyanko Mahanta) and Field Assistant (Mr. Pranjal Baishya) conducted the Awareness Cum Registration Camp for Muga Silk GI Authorised Users Registration with a view to sensitise the producers (including the weavers) of Muga Silk of Dhakuakhana, Assam about the Muga Silk of Assam GI and to enroll them under the umbrella of Authorised Users of the Muga Silk of Assam GI.

15 February, 2023 DAY 1: Awareness Programme for Muga Silk GI Authorised Users Registration

An awareness programme on IPR in general and GI in particular was organised on 15th of February, 2023 for the grassroot producers and weavers of Muga Silk at Normal School, Dhakuakhana. The programme was attended by the Mr. Lakhi Konwar, Principal of Normal School, Mr. Prasanna Patra and Mr. Utpal Deka, Seri-Demonstrators, Sericulture Department of Dhakuakhana, and Mr. Arup Ranjan Dutta, Chairman, Charikaria Muga FPC Ltd., alongwith the local producers and weavers of Muga. The programme commenced with the felicitation of Dr. Pankaj Kumar, DPIIT-IPR Chair Professor, NLUJA, Assam and a welcome address by the Principal of Normal School.

Dr. Pankaj Kumar started his deliberation by providing an understanding of the concept of Intellectual Property Rights with examples. He then explained in simple language the concept of GI with illustrations and the rights as well as benefits associated with it. Dr. Kumar discussed about the misuse of GI tagged products, particularly Muga Silk of Assam, by a section of scrupulous people who strive to deprive the authentic producers of such GI tagged products. He stressed that inorder to protect and prevent such misuse a system has to be made which checks the authenticity of the production of GI tagged products as well as preserves the rights of the producers of such GI products. He then proceeded to discuss about the system made by the Government that involves registration of the original producers of GI tagged products as 'Authorised Users'. Dr. Kumar harped about the benefits of registration and the effects of nonregistration as authorised users as well as the penalty involved in using the Muga Silk of Assam GI tag without being an Authorised User. Sir also discussed about the post GI system which involve quality control and maintenance. Finally, the insightful deliberation ended with an interaction with the audience.

The session then proceeded with a deliberation by Ms. Dolly Kumar, Research Assistant, DPIIT-IPR Chair, NLUJA, Assam who at the onset informed the audience about the objective of this programme and also about the registration camp for Muga Silk GI Authorised Users Registration scheduled on the next day, i.e., 16th of February, 2023. She elaborately explained the local producers and weavers in Assamese about IPRs stressing on Geographical Indications and also discussed about Muga Silk of Assam GI registration. She explained the audience about the proof of authenticity of a product by means of GI registration. She therefore, emphasised about the rights and benefits of GI products and the need to enroll as an authorised user of a GI product.

Ms. Kumar urged the local Muga producers and weavers to attend the Authorised Users registration camp to be held on the next day so that the authentic Muga producers and weavers can reap the benefit of the Muga Silk of Assam GI and guard their livelihoods.

The programme further proceeded with a deliberation by Ms. Sharmistha Baruah, Research Assistant, DPIIT-IPR Chair who discussed in detail about the registration of Muga Silk GI and the need for Authorised User registration. She also informed the people about the classes of goods covered under Muga Silk of Assam GI which encompasses the people who cultivates and weaves Muga Silk. Ms. Baruah illustratively outlined the people the meaning of 'Registered Proprietor' and 'Authorised User' and their significance in the GI regime. She emphasised the need to register as Muga Silk Authorised User and then elucidated the requirements as well as benefits of the same. She also responded to the various queries asked by the people regarding the authorised user registration process.

Around 50 plus people attended the awareness programme which ended with an interactive session with the participants. A vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. Lakhi Konwar, Principal of Normal School, Dhakuakhana.
