Dear Madam / Sir,

Greetings of the day!

I am directed to inform you that with approval of competent authority, NLUJA, Assam has initiated a 'Mentor-Mentee Programme', whereby each student of the University has been put under the mentorship of designated faculty members. The students are hereby asked to consult their mentors, on all academic and personal matters. Faculty Members are requested to lend their valuable inputs towards personal and professional development of the mentees.

Note: Brief details of mentor-mentee interaction may kindly be recorded in the prescribed template.

With regards,

Registrar,
National Law University and Judicial Academy, Assam

Subject: Report on Mentor- Mentee Programme

Date: 25/11/22

Respected Madam,

I would kindly like to inform you that I have organised a meeting with the students of the 1st year (1st semester), odd semester allotted to me for mentorship on 21st November 2022 for the academic year 2022-23. A total of 11 students were present out of sixteen students. They conveyed some common academic and other grievances which they have been facing and are stated as under:

- a. To extend the timing of library during weekdays so that they could devote more time in library study and that the library should remain open during weekends (only the ground floor/reading section) remains open on weekend.
- b. Lack of updated editions of books on laws and social sciences in the library. Also the syllabus oriented books on laws are lacking. For the subject Political science, the books are mostly on Indian Politics and for History and Economics limited books are there in the library. Additionally, the updated versions of journals are also lacking.
- c. Shortage of study tables in the hostel room and also some of the tables are broken.
- d. No proper cleaning of the hostel rooms is done.
- e. Requirement of a clean and hygienic canteen with good ambience where the get quality food at a subsidised rate. The current existing canteen food is a bit expensive and also less hygienic.

In furtherance of the above cited problems, I have intimated the respected departments about the same and requested them to take appropriate action.

Yours Faithfully,

Dear sir/madam
Greetings of the day!

I was allotted 17 students of the IX semester. I carried out the following activities under the programme.

1. I circulated among them a form to be filled in by them. They were mainly required to mention their grievances in the form. Out of 17 students, 6 students emailed me the forms. Out of the six, five students mentioned that they do not have any grievance. One student did not mention any complaint, but wrote that she wanted to know the career options after LL.B.

2. On November 11, 2022, at 04.15 PM, I conducted a meeting with the students. Out of the 17 students, 11 attended the meeting. In the meeting I asked them how they troubleshoot a problem they encounter in daily life. Students shared the diverse ways they deal with a problem. I also advised them some ways as to how a problem may be dealt with patiently. I also talked about the career and further study options after LL.B.

Thanking you
Best regards

1.	Divyaraj Jain , UID 21	Student Complained about poor lighting on the walking trek, sport ground, cleanings of sport complex and disposal of the garbage near the boy hostel. This complain was received by me on 13 October 2022.	On the basis of the compline, I personally spoken with hostel and administrative Authority for maintain lights, and looking proper cleanliness of the ground. Letter on I spoke with the student he seems to be satisfied with redressal.
2.	Jyoti, UID 29	The student complained about Mess problem as her complaint was that mess food is not up to the quality and it is becoming worst day by day. Further she pointed out that safety concern as snakes have been frequently spotted in campus and even once leopard was also spotted. This complaint was received on 04/11/2022	With respect to the issue, I spoke with the Administrative Authority with regards to mess problem as students are facing problem with quality of food and their concern about safety.

3.	Darshana Chetry UID 17	The student, complained about the mess food as she mentioned that mess food is not as per the quality and which force her to escape food on frequent basis, she also mentioned that some time she has also face stomach-ache due to mess food. Student approach to the mentor on 03/11/2022	I brought this mess issue with concern authority, and suggested student, if she face any health issue she should be consulting with University doctor if required.
4.	Juhi Basfor, UID 28	Her Complain was about the mess food. As per the mess menu, Veg chawmein, Idli, masala dosa is served as breakfast, with no alternative such as bread butter or jam thus it create problem to many students and they force to escape their breakfast	Suggested as not to escape breakfast and convince her as there are many students are coming from pan India so it wont be possible to prepare chois breakfast to each student. Further I requested authority if they can ensure alternative to the regular breakfast so that student can have at least something in breakfast.

“Learn to Teach” Policy for LLM Students

With a view to inculcate teaching skills in the LLM students, the Post Graduate Centre for Legal Studies, National Law University Assam introduces “Learn to Teach” policy for them. It seeks to provide the students with exposure to teaching skills and give them an opportunity to learn and imbibe the art of teaching.

The modalities of the policy are as follows:

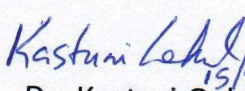

1. Every teacher teaching an LLM course, if agrees, may be allotted four LLM students willing to learn teaching.
2. The various areas on which the teachers may train the students include the followings:
 - ◆ How to find and select relevant material for a particular lecture
 - ◆ How to structure and prepare a lecture
 - ◆ How to begin a lecture
 - ◆ How to answer or handle questions from students
 - ◆ How to create a learning environment in the class
 - ◆ How to ensure your reception by every student
 - ◆ How to have an interactive class and engage the students
 - ◆ How to keep calm
 - ◆ How to use PPTs
 - ◆ What not to speak in the class (misogynistic, patriarchal, sexist, casteist, hateful, half-truthful, communal, stereotypical, racial or very personal remarks must be avoided.)

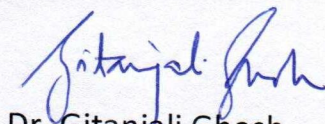

3. After two weeks of such training, the teachers may ask the students to teach in their BALLB classes for a time duration mutually agreed upon.
4. Whenever the LLM students teach in BALLB classes, the respective teachers shall be present to oversee their performance.
5. The teachers may ask the LLM students to accompany them to their BALLB classes during their lectures without affecting the scheduled LLM classes of the students.
6. An LLM student shall not be asked to teach in BALLB for more than two times a month.
7. Teachers may introduce peer teaching and ask the students on regular basis to explain for 10-15 minutes in their own LLM class the topics already taught. Subsequently, the teachers may give their respective feedbacks.
8. The teaching by the students shall not be subject to any evaluation/assessment in terms of marks or grade.
